FACES OF GOD

"To love another person is to see the face of God." — Victor Hugo

"But we all, with unveiled faces, looking as in a mirror at the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit. — 2 Corinthians 3:17-18 (NASB)

168th Home Dedication

Porch de Salomon dedicated its 9th home this year in Pujujil to Isabel and her sons, Victor, and Kevin.

Isabel faced unimaginable loss when her husband was tragically killed in an accident. With gratitude, Isabel, Victor, and Kevin now have a new, sturdy home, a weaving business, and a fresh start filled with hope for a brighter future. Thank you to all our generous donors for providing them with a safe and loving home.

169th Home Dedication

"For the lost, the least, and the last"

Carmen Puac and her three sons, Israel, William, and Moisés, received a new home from Porch in San Bartolo, Sololá. Carmen faced challenges after her husband left when Moisés was two, but her love for her sons and faith in God kept her strong.

On the day of the home dedication, filled with gratitude, the boys expressed their heartfelt thanks, acknowledging their mother's sacrifices and God's provision. Together, they embraced this new beginning, ready to face the future with hope and determination.

Stare into the eyes of another and behold God's beauty!

Crested Butte Dental, UCC Crested Butte, Dirty Feet Missions, and Geist Christian Church joined Porch to provide essential dental services, help dig foundations for new homes, and facilitate Bible school for local communities. Their efforts brought hope, making a lasting impact on those they served.

“In the midst of our busy lives, it's easy to rush from one task to the next, always moving, always striving. But sometimes, God calls us to stop and embrace the moment right in front of us.” — Kyle Brown

Porch celebrated with the family of Mrs. Alma Judit García and her son, Carlos, and daughter, Kelly, at the groundbreaking of their new home in San Andrés. This family has gone through a challenging situation. They lived with an alcoholic father and lost a young son/brother who died from appendix problems through medical negligence after an operation. Carlos had been taking care of his little brother a lot while his mother went to work, so the death of his brother affected him deeply.

Porch started building a new home in Peña Blanca Village for Marta, Roberto, and their four children: Glendy, Wendy, Jennifer, and little Roberto. Marta and Roberto work tirelessly to support their children, with a shared determination to provide them with a quality education and a brighter future. While Porch assists with groceries, their income is insufficient, especially with the rising cost of necessities. They currently live in a small adobe room owned by Marta's mother, and their makeshift kitchen, constructed from sheet metal, suffers from a leaking roof. Despite these challenges, Marta and Roberto remain hopeful and are grateful for the opportunity to have a home of their own.

Josefa

Porch de Salomon extends heartfelt gratitude to our valued donors whose unwavering and generous support positively changes families like these. Your contributions are truly making a meaningful impact.

Porch broke ground in Sololá for Josefa and Alejandro. Josefa chose not to marry because she didn't want to be responsible for raising children. However, when her sister passed away while giving birth, she ended up taking care of her nephew Alejandro. Alejandro's father wasn't available to take on the responsibility. Despite not wanting children of her own, Josefa ended up raising Alejandro, and he loves and respects her as if she were his mother. They support each other and have formed a strong family bond.

Opportunity to see the face of God!

Porch de Salomon brought Maria, Alberto, and their children closer to their community by delivering water filters funded by Milledgeville First Methodist Church from Georgia. Maria identified those in need and helped pass out the filters. The community's acceptance improved after receiving the filters, bringing hope for a more inclusive and healthier future. Maria told Porch staff, "My life has changed."
